April 11th, 2004

Greetings:

In The Life Atlanta thanks you once again for your participation in our 2003 Delta Air Lines Black Pride Market Place. With your help, 2003 turned out to be one of our best years yet.

Since 1996, ITLA has been coordinating Atlanta's Black Gay Pride event each year during Labor Day Weekend. The feedback we receive from our guest, vendors, and staff help to ensure each year continues the tradition of growth and community participation. This year's theme, U.N.I.T.Y: Celebrating Our Pride, Embracing Our Roots, encompasses this tradition and our excitement of what is to come for 2004.

Enclosed is an application and vendor agreement for 2004. To ensure that we can properly plan for all applicants and any special requirements, we must enforce a strict deadline for return and payment of vendor applications. Any applications that we receive after our deadline will only be considered if space is available and will require a $100.00 late process fee. There are a limited number of spaces that can accommodate an electrical outlet and a telephone line. We encourage vendors who require either of these additional items to apply early. This year, our Market Place will be open on Friday September 3rd through Sunday, September 6th. Vendors will be able to begin setup as early as Thursday, September 2nd.

Vendors applications received by the deadline will receive the following benefits:

- Business name and product listing in our 2004 Black Pride Guide, which will be distributed throughout Atlanta at least two weeks prior to the weekend
- Table location listing in the Marketplace Directory
- Listing on our website (http://www.inthelifeatl.com)

We also offer additional marketing and advertising opportunities such as ¼ page to full-page ads in our Pride Guide, mailer inserts, and flyer inserts in our event welcome packs. Our graphic design partner, EM Designs Group, can assist you with design and production these items as well as custom displays and banners. If you are interested in receiving more information about these opportunities, please contact us at the number below.

Our planning committee is working hard to plan activities that are specifically geared towards drawing more people from both inside and outside the hotel to the Marketplace.

We hope that you are as excited about this year's even as we are and look forward to having you join us.

Sincerely,

2004 Logistics Team

3. Technical Assistance Meeting

The IFBP have received several very good proposals from Black Prides cities interested in hosting the January 14 - 17, 2005 (Dr. Martin L. King, Jr. Weekend) Technical Assistance Meeting. The best proposal will be presented to the membership via email very shortly in order to get started on the logical planning.

Michael:

I have to say that your proposal was the best one received and I have shown it to several members who concur with me. I would say that 20-25 rooms would be close to what we should expect from the block. A decision will be made very shortly but no one else comes close to what you have proposed. I would probably come a few days early to witness the LGBT meeting with Ms. King. Congrats!!

Peace,

Michael E. Slaughter

Peace and Blessings;

I am Aaron Pope, a freelance media specialists, and I am pitching and story idea replete with video footage that will be a segment in a documentary for Apryl Reign Productions. The text will be used in an article in a web publication. I am interested in getting Press Creditials for some of the events of the Black pride Weeekend. The web-site was very informative but i find myself still a little unsure at what will going on, and what my game plan should be. My goal is to show all aspects of this weekend. i have heard very many things about it, and through my journalistic eye I want to show that to the rest of the world. I would love to highlight fashion, atmosphere, demographics, lifestyle, socioeconomic differences, music, the whole shabang. If you have any further information for me please feel free to send that infor to this address (bigpopestar@aol.com). I look forward to hearing from you. Thank you in advance.

Darlene....

I am glad you found the keys. I had misplaced mine as well but found them before leaving the park (thank goodness).

It looks like the BBQ was a success from the feedback I have received from some of the attendees. Everyone had a great time and your ribs were "da bomb"!!!

I will note your expenses on the financial report for the BBQ.

I am currently working on the details for the next AWF sponsored ITLA fundraiser. It will be at the July Happy Hour Networking on July 16th. It will be a "ITLA in the Spotlight" Reception & Happy Hour. The admission will be a $5.00 donation (minimum) at the door. Of course, we will be soliciting additional donations throughout the evening. Darlene, Mike and Zandra, one or all, should be prepared to speak about the organization, its missions, and upcoming Pride events.

I will creating a draft invitation for review and approval for the event. Each Board Member can then send out the invitation to their special guests/sponsors/supports/friends. I am currently working on getting a local R&B/Jazz songstress to perform that evening at no charge.

AWF will donate the light buffet items.

Let me know if you have any questions or suggestions.

Hey Denise
I want to thank you for putting it all together. I found my keys... Yea!
Please make a notation that I supplied 95.00 in Rib Sandwiches and 20. 00 in fruit cups. I spent 56.00 on the cost of the ribs and 24.00 in the cost of the fruit.
I think we did a great job for the weekend.
peace

Publix
Atlanta, GA

Greetings:

In The Life Atlanta, Inc. (ITLA) is currently seeking corporate sponsors for our 2004 fundraising drive. ITLA plans to hold several community cook outs over the next several months and is seeking support from Publix to provide the items necessary for us to hold successful fundraising events to meet our goal.

ITLA was formed in 1996 as a non-profit organization to serve the needs of Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, and Transsexual people of African descent within the Metro Atlanta community. Through education, advocacy, coalition building programs and other activities, ITLA fosters unity, pride, empowerment, and positive visibility resulting in a strong community voice. ITLA is also the official organizer of Atlanta Black Gay Pride, the nation's third largest Black Gay pride celebration.

As a community-focused organization, ITLA donates time, talent and resources to children's centers, health centers, AIDS service organizations and other charitable entities. Your support will assist us in producing quality programs and in supporting worthy causes in Atlanta. Your tax-deductible donation will be processed through our partner, The Georgia Equality Foundation, for In The Life Atlanta.

Attached is a list of items for which we are seeking donations. For your support, Publix will be listed as a sponsor of each fundraising event and as a corporate sponsor of In The Life Atlanta for 2004. The Publix logo will appear on all event specific marketing, ITLA's web site, and on any advertising and marketing where sponsor recognition is generally listed. We will also reserve a complimentary half page ad space in our 2004 souvenir guide, distributed to over 2,500 visitors during Labor Day weekend.

Thank you for consideration of our request. We look forward to working with Publix through the year and into the future.

Sincerely,

Michael E. Slaughter
